Lisbon, July 16. N. S.

LEtters from Madrid give an Account, That King Charles III. was Proclaimed in that City the 2d Inſtant with great Solemnity; upon which Occaſion the People there of all Ranks and Conditions gave all imaginable Expreſſions of their Joy and Satisfaction to ſee themſelves freed from the Tyranny and Oppreſſion of a French Government, and their Lawful Sovereign reſtored to the Throne of his Anceſtors. Our Army, ſince its Arrival at Madrid, is conſiderably encreaſed by the great Numbers of Spaniſh Officers and Soldiers who come over to us daily from the Enemy, and declare for his Catholick Majeſty. By ſeveral Satees lately come from the Streights, we have an Account, That the Conde de Santa Cruz being ſent from Carthagena with two Gallies, having on board 50000 Pieces of Eight, to pay the Gariſon of Oran, choſe rather to go to the Confederate Fleet under the Command of Sir John Leake, and declare for King Charles. That upon Intelligence that the City of Carthagena, the beſt Port of the Coaſt of Spain in the Mediterranean, was generally diſpoſed to do the like, the Fleet ſailed thither, and the Inhabitants accordingly ſoon ſubmitted: Since which Sir John Leake was come towards Alicant, having great Encouragement to hope for the like Succeſs there.

Coni, June 30. N.S. The 24th Inſtant, in the Morning, the Duke of Savoy having Notice, that the Body of the Enemy which followed him was divided, part of them remaining at Bra, and the reſt having marched along the River Stura, and poſſeſſed themſelves of Foſſano, in order to paſs the River there, and cut off our Retreat, we marched away from Quieraſco to the Banks of the River Stura, over againſt Foſſano; and the Army lay there that Night upon their Arms. The 25th we encamped in the ſame Place, being a very advantagious Poſt, to hinder the Enemy from paſſing the River. In the Evening his Royal Highneſs called a Council of War, wherein it was unanimouſly concluded, That if the Enemy attempted to paſs the River in our ſight, we ſhould uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to hinder them, and to make the beſt Advantage we could of the Poſt we were in: That if they paſſed the River lower towards Quieraſco, we ſhould retire towards Coni; and if they ſhould paſs it higher, to cut off our Retreat hither, we ſhould immediately march directly to them, and charge them with our whole Body, before all theirs could be paſſed. This being reſolved, we fortified our ſelves; and Guards were poſted all along the River, that we might have Intelligence if the Enemy attempted to paſs it any where elſe, as they eaſily might, for it is fordable in many places, tho' the Banks are very ſteep, upon which we moſt depended. The 26th the Enemy cannonaded us with 8 Field-Pieces from the oppoſite Bank, and killed us 3 Men, and 7 or 8 Horſes. The 27th in the Morning they laid a Bridge of Boats over the River a little below Foſſano, and 5 of their Battalions, with about 600 Horſe, paſſed over, and drew up in a little Plain on this ſide, within a very ſmall diſtance of us, their Cannon on the other ſide ſtill playing upon us as the Day before. His Royal Highneſs obſerving the ſmall Number of this Body, judged that it was only deſigned to amuſe us, whilſt the greater Number paſſed ſome where elſe, as it proved; for we ſoon had Notice, that the reſt of their Body was paſſing the River about three Miles lower towards Quieraſco: It was therefore reſolved to retire to this Place, which was performed with great Order, and little Loſs, tho' ſeveral Parties of the Enemy followed us 3 or 4 Miles. We have Advice, that his Royal Highneſs's Family is ſafely arrived at Oneglia, from whence he intends they ſhall retire into the Territories of Genoa. We hear, that the Enemy who lay encamped near St. Alban are marched back towards Quieraſco to beſiege it.

Genoa, July 17. The Dutcheſſes of Savoy, and the reſt of the Duke of Savoy's Family, arrived here the 15th Inſtant. Letters from Piedmont of the 9th ſay, the French before Turin had, by reaſon of the ſmall Number of their Troops left to carry on the Siege, been obliged to quit their Poſts at Chieri and Montcalier, which had given the Beſieged an Opportunity of opening their Communication again with the Country; That the Fire of their Cannon being greater than that of the Enemy, they had diſmounted ſeveral of their Batteries; and that their Fortifications were in a very good Condition, the Damage which the Enemy's Bombs and Cannon did to them in the Day being repaired every Night; and that the Siege went on very ſlowly. Theſe Letters add, That the Duke de la Feuillade, who with 50 Squadrons and ſome Battalions of Foot purſues the Duke of Savoy, having reſolved to attack him the 7th near Saluces, whither his Royal Highneſs was retired, ordered the Marquis d'Aubeterre to advance thither with 40 Squadrons and 6 Battalions; but his Royal Highneſs had diſpoſed his Troops ſo well, that he retired thro' the Defiles, and paſſed the Po in the ſight of the Enemy, who attempted to fall on his Rear; but the Duke in Perſon, at the Head of Prince Eugene's Regiment of Horſe, that led up the Rear, gave them ſo warm a Reception, that they were forced to retire in great Diſorder, with the Loſs of 100 Men killed, 50 taken Priſoners, among whom were 6 Officers, and 2 Standards; and of his Royal Highneſs's Troops, there were no more than 50 Men killed or wounded; among the latter are reckoned the Prince Emanuel of Soiſſons and the Count de Sales. His Highneſs after this Action retired to Bubiana.

Milan, July 20. They write from the Modeneſe, That the Imperial Troops under Prince Eugene having paſſed the Po, are advanced to Carpi, where they ſurprized a ſmall Detachment of French Horſe, and killed or took them all Priſoners of War.

Vienna, July 21. The Ceſſation of Arms with the Malecontents of Hungary ends the 24th Inſtant, of which publick Notice has been given here and in the neighbouring Country, that every body may be upon their Guard; and in the mean time Preparations are making for carrying on the War againſt them with great Vigour, unleſs they are willing to prevent it by complying with the Conditions propoſed by the Imperial Court, in order to the putting an end to thoſe Troubles.

Philipsbourg, July 17. The Enemy having paſſed the Rhine at the Fort of Kehl, the Imperial Troops that lay in our Neighbourhood are all marched to the Lines of Stollhoffen, where Prince Lewis is aſſembling his Forces, in order to prevent any Deſigns they may have on that ſide.

From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Helchin, Auguſt 2. N. S. The Huſſars which have come over to us from the Enemy ſince the Battle of Ramelies being formed into a Body, have been very uſeful to us in reſtraining the Enemy's Parties, and upon ſeveral other Occaſions. On Friday laſt a Party of them made an Excurſion as far as Douay, and brought back a conſiderable Booty, beſides 10 Dragoons, whom they had taken Priſoners, together with their Horſes. The Army under the Command of Monſieur d'Auverquerque, which lately came from Oſtende, and the Troops of Pruſſia and Hanover, being come into the Line, my Lord Duke of Marlborough ordered the Firſt Line to draw out on Saturday, and the Second this Day, to ſhew the Prince Royal of Pruſſia the whole in Order of Battle. General Saliſch, who commands the Troops before Menin has thought fit to defer the opening of the Trenches till the Lines of Circumvallation are finiſhed, which we hope will be to morrow. We have Advice from the Frontiers, That the Enemy are preparing to aſſemble a Body of Troops between Aeth and Cambron, to be commanded by the Elector of Bavaria; and another near Douay, which the Duke of Vendoſme is to command when he arrives from Italy. My Lord Halifax ſets out to morrow Morning for Holland.

Hague, Auguſt 3. N. S. Our laſt Advices from the Army before Menin ſay, they had received all their Cannon, and would open their Trenches this Night. A Train of Artillery which lay at Coblents is come to Ghent, and there put on board ſeveral Flat-bottom'd Boats, in order to its being brought up the Lys as high as Menin, and carried from thence where it ſhall be thought proper. Monſieur Itterſum, who was ſent by the States General to Munſter, to aſſiſt on their Part at the Choice of a Biſhop of that See, is returned hither, that Election being put off for 4 Weeks. General Frieſheim's Son arrived here laſt Night from Spain, having been ſent by his Father, who commands the Dutch Forces in Portugal, with the News of the Confederate Army's being advanced to Madrid, and that City's declaring for his Catholick Majeſty: Whereupon great Rejoycings have been made here ſuitable to the Occaſion. Letters from Paris ſay, it was reported there, that Orders had been ſent to the Duke de la Feuillade to raiſe the Siege of Turin, and to join the French Army in Lombardy commanded by the Duke of Orleans.

Hull, July 24. Her Majeſty's Ships the Haſtings and Rocheſter Prize arrived here the 22d Inſtant, with about 24 Sail of Merchantmen under their Convoy from Rotterdam. Six Dutch Men of War paſſed by at the ſame time, with divers other Veſſels under their Convoy, bound to the Northward.

Cowes, July 24. Yeſterday was ſent in here as Prize by a Dutch Privateer a French Privateer of 10 Guns and 52 Men, taken off of the Iſlands of Scilly.

Portſmouth, July 25. Her Majeſty's Ships the Expedition and Nightingale ſailed yeſterday Morning from Spithead for the Downes, with about 60 Sail of homeward bound Merchant-men and Coaſters under their Convoy.

Whitehall, July 27. Letters from Dantzick give an Account of great Rejoycings made there, and a Noble Entertainment given by Dr. Robinſon, Her Majeſty's Envoy to the King of Sweden, upon the Occaſion of the late glorious Succeſſes of the Arms of Her Majeſty and Her Allies; which was in the manner following: Upon his Houſe were diſplay'd Engliſh Pendants, Flags and Ancients: The Front was cover'd with Greens, with Her Majeſty's Arms, and under them an Inſcription in Letters of Gold, proper for the happy Occaſion: Behind the Greens were 2 Hogſheads of Wine to run, which were filled up from others that ſtood by as faſt as they were emptied. A Guard of 26 Men was ſet to prevent Diſorders. There was one Table for the Ambaſſador of Denmark, the Envoy and Commiſſary of the States, the Reſident of Pruſſia, about 12 of the Principal Magiſtrates of the Town, and other Perſons of Note, to the Number of 24 in all. In his Garden he had 11 Pieces of Cannon, 10 Trumpets, Kettle-Drum and Hautbois, with Tables furniſhed for 100 Perſons, moſt Engliſh, Scotch, and Hollanders: Beſides whom there came 4 or 500 of the better ſort of the People of the Town; and the Streets adjoining were crowded with great Numbers of Spectators. The whole was performed with great Order and Decency, and the Inhabitants of Dantzick upon this Occaſion gave all poſſible Expreſſions of their Veneration for Her Majeſty, and Eſteem for the Engliſh Nation, and of their Joy for the Succeſſes where with it pleaſes God to bleſs Her moſt happy and glorious Reign.

Windſor, July 28. The following moſt dutiful and loyal Addreſſes, congratulating Her Majeſty upon the moſt glorious and happy Succeſſes of the Arms of Her Majeſty and Her Allies, and more eſpecially thoſe under the Command of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, have been preſented to Her Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen, at the Quarter Seſſions held at Bridgewater, in and for the County of Somerſet: Preſented by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fitzharding.

Tu

The humble Addreſs of the Lieut. Governor, Deputy-Lieutenant, Bayliff, the Jurats, Clergy, and Conſtables, of Her Majeſty's Iſland of Guernſey, Parcel of Her ancient Dutchy of Normandy: Preſented by the Rt. Hon. Mr. Secretary Hedges, in the Abſence and at the Deſire of the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viſcount Hatton, Governor of the ſaid Iſland.

The humble Addreſs of the Bayliff, Recorder, Aldermen, Common-Council, Town-Clerk, and Burgeſſes, of Her Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Brecon. And

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders, of the County of Brecon, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions holden for the ſaid County: Both preſented by Sir Jeffrey Jeffreys, one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the Town of Brecon.

The humble Addreſs of Her Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects of the County of Angleſey, and the Mayor, Bayliffs and Burgeſſes, of the Borough of Beaumaris: Preſented by the Hon. Henry Bertie Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament of the Borough of Beaumaris.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

If any Able-bodied Men are willing to ſerve Her Majeſty in the Train of Artillery, let them repair to Capt. Silver, Maſter-Gunner of England, at his Houſe in St. James's Park, or at the Exerciſe on Blackheath, they ſhall enter into preſent Pay of Seven Shillings a Week, and be further encouraged and advanced as they ſhall deſerve.

By the Principal Commiſſioners for Prizes.

Madrid, July 4. N. S.

THE 2d Inſtant his Catholick Majeſty King Charles III. was Proclaimed here, both the Nobility and People expreſſing their Joy for their happy Deliverance from Foreign Tyranny; and this Solemnity was performed with the greateſt Magnificence. The ſeveral Tribunals or Courts of Juſtice being ſhut up, by reaſon of the Duke of Anjou's having carried ſeveral of the Judges and Officers belonging thereto away with him: Thoſe who remained here, and ſome that had made their Eſcape from the Duke of Anjou, were directed to open the Courts again, and the Adminiſtration of Juſtice was reſtored. A Conference was had with the Corregidor of Madrid about the Proviſions which that Place and the neighbouring Country were to furniſh for the Army; and it was agreed to be 30000 Rations of Bread every Day during 3 Months. The Marquis das Minas received Letters from ſeveral of the Grandees, That they had left Madrid, and were retired to their Country Houſes, becauſe they would not be obliged to attend the Duke of Anjou; but they would return and wait upon his Catholick Majeſty as ſoon as they ſhould hear of his being at Madrid: Which Letters were full of Expreſſions of their Duty and Loyalty to the King. The Marquis alſo received Letters from the Queen Dowager of Spain, who is at Toledo, expreſſing her great Satisfaction to ſee the Catholick King her Nephew reſtored to the Throne of his Anceſtors. There came Letters likewiſe from the Cardinal Portocarrero, who is in the ſame Place, containing many Expreſſions of his Duty to his Majeſty. The Marquis das Minas intends to march to Morrow with the Army to Ponte-Oiveros, 3 Leagues from hence, and the Day following to Alcala de Henares, whereby he will have a greater Conveniency of ſupplying himſelf with Forage, and will the better ſecure the neighbouring Country from the Excurſions of the Enemy, who are encamped at Xadraque, within 5 Leagues of Guadalajara.

Florence, July 17. Letters from Barcelona of the 4th Inſtant, which came by the way of Genoa, give an Account of the King of Spain's Departure thence on the 23d paſt towards Valentia: But that his Majeſty having received an Account, That the City of Saragoſſa, with all the Kingdom of Arragon, had declared for him; and having likewiſe by ſeveral Couriers had Intelligence, That on the Approach of the Earl of Galway with the Forces under his Command to Madrid, the Duke of Anjou was retired towards Pampeluna; his Majeſty had thought fit to change his Reſolution, and to go directly to Saragoſſa, and proceed from thence to Madrid. They likewiſe bring Advice, That the Towns of Alicant and Carthagena, with the Kingdoms of Murcia and Leon, and part of Caſtile, had declared for his Majeſty, except the Caſtle of Alicant, which ſtill held out, but in all probability would ſoon be reduced.

Venice, July 23. The Imperial Troops under Prince Eugene have paſſed the Po, and are marching into the Modeneſe, in order to proceed through the Parmeſan towards Piedmont. His Highneſs has left behind a Body of Troops, under the Command of the Prince of Anhalt, to keep the Communication open with Germany. Theſe Forces are to be joined by the Heſſians and other Troops. The French continue poſted along the Mincio, their Head Quarters being at Goito, where the Duke of Orleans, who arrived at Mantua the 16th Inſtant, is ſuddenly expected. The Duke of Vendoſme ſet out from the Army the 20th. The Germans have poſſeſſed themſelves of Mezzola, taking Priſoners a French Officer and 70 Men who were in Gariſon there; whereby they have recovered the Conveniency they formerly had of being ſupplied with Proviſions and other Neceſſaries by that way from Carniola.

From the Duke of Marlborough's Camp at Helchin, Auguſt 5. N. S. On Tueſday the 3d Inſtant my Lord Duke of Marlborough ordered 6 Battalions of Foot to march from the Army to reinforce the Troops before Menin. Yeſterday his Grace went to Courtray, to meet the Deputies of the States and General Saliſch, in order to concert Meaſures for carrying on that Siege with all poſſible Vigour. My Lord Duke received an Account this Afternoon from Monſieur Saliſch, That the Trenches were opened laſt Night between the Ypres and Bruges Gates; and there were two different Attacks, one on the Right, commanded by Lieutenant-General Scholten, with Major-General Ebberfeld and Brigadier Capol; and the other on the Left, by the Earl of Orkney, with Major-General Rantzan and Brigadier Ammama, with 1000 Workmen, 500 Fuſiliers to cover, and 3 Battalions to ſuſtain them at each Attack. Our Men carried their Works within 350 Paces of the Counterſcarp; and there wanted not above 60 Paces of the Parallel which is to make the Communication between the two Attacks: They have likewiſe made a Redoubt to cover the Flanks of the Trenches on the Left; and had not in the whole 20 Men killed and wounded. The Trenches will be relieved for the future by a Major-General and a Brigadier-General at each Attack; and this Night they will begin to work on the Batteries. The Beſieged made ſeveral Attempts laſt Night to diſturb the Workmen on the Left, and put them into ſome Diſorder; but all was ſoon reſtored by the Care and Conduct of my Lord Orkney. They likewiſe made a Salley about One this Afternoon, but were immediately repulſed with Loſs. We have Advice, That the Marſhal de Villeroy ſet out Yeſterday for Paris, having Notice of the Duke of Vendoſme's Arrival, who came that Evening to Valenciennes, went this Day to dine with the Elector of Bavaria at St. Ghiſlaine, and is expected this Night at Conde.

Hague, Auguſt 6. N. S. The States of Holland and Weſtfriſeland met here again the 4th Inſtant. Letters from France give an Account, That the King of Spain had been at Saragoſſa, that City and all Arragon having declared for him, and was ſuddenly expected at Madrid. They add, That Prince Eugene was the 23d paſt at Finale in the Modeneſe, continuing his March towards the Parmeſan, in order to proceed to Piedmont, and join the Duke of Savoy.

Baltimore, July 20. On the 17th Inſtant the Dove of London, an outward bound Ship, of 8 Guns, ſailed out of this Harbour, and was met by a French Privateer betwixt Skerkin and the Cape, with whom ſhe engaged: After ſeveral Broadſides the Privateer boarded her; and the Men defending themſelves with great Bravery betwixt Decks, the French cut a Hole upon the Quarter-Deck, and threw Granadoes into the Cabin, one of which unluckily fell among the Powder, and blew up the Deck, and about 40 of the Enemy, and then the Ship ſunk: The Maſter and 3 of his Men were taken up in the Water; three more made their Eſcape in the Small-Boat, and two were killed in the Engagement. The ſame Day there arrived at Four-Mile-Water the Sarah of Biddiford from the Maderas: She left there ſeveral Engliſh Men of War ready to ſail for the Weſt-Indies.
